Sales Agronomist

C-W Valley Co-op is a full service, locally owned cooperative in Comstock and Wolverton, MN. We strive to offer our patrons everything they need to be successful and pride ourselves in providing quality service.

We are looking to add a Sales Agronomist to our busy, growing agronomy team. Ideal candidates would have a passion for success, strong agronomic background, and outgoing personality. Responsibilities would include developing and maintaining relationships with local producers, conducting sales calls, making input recommendations based on solid agronomic practices, and working alongside other team members to meet customer and operational expectations.

If you would like to join a strong company that offers an excellent wage and benefits package contact us today! We are looking to hire immediately to start this spring.

Please contact us with any questions.
